

Cyprus

A hot-spot for all seasons

Rugby, cricket, hockey and netball are favourites in Cyprus and it caters for the slightly younger age groups too. This is a favoured winter hot-spot and great for warm weather training.

The island of Cyprus is located in the eastern Mediterranean where it basks in year-round sunshine and has some very alluring beaches. Cyprus combines European culture with ancient enchantment as Alexander the Great, Cleopatra and Aphrodite staked their claims here.

Our suggested tour takes you to the south coast town of Limassol, the largest seaside resort in Cyprus. While the bustling seafront promenade is lined with bars and restaurants, close by lie the southern slopes of the Troodos mountains, with picturesque wine producing villages and peaceful resorts.
