

Holland

Many all weather surfaces

Football is the principle team sport for all ages with rugby and hockey not far behind. Rugby in Holland provides a great test for both first time tourists as well as seasoned campaigners.

Hockey is first rate and while social and inexperienced teams are well catered for, Holland is a must for any serious hockey player. Sport is extremely well organised and there are many all weather surfaces.

Holland contains some stunning cities from the canals and architecture of Amsterdam to the medieval beauty of Maastricht. Also famous for its windmills, tulips and cheeses – this is certainly a country of contrasts.

Our two suggested tours take you to the tranquil and relaxed city of The Hague or the capital, Amsterdam. Other options include Breda and Rotterdam. All good budget destinations with flights, coach and ferry options available.
